Advertising and Decorations Committee: Marvin Minear, '39, Chairman, David H. Briggs, '19, Archibald F. Pieper, '36, and the College Pep Committee

If you have not already done so and there is time, won't you send a postal card to the alumni office saying that you plan to attend? It is a real help and a relief to our anxiety lest we fail to prepare for all of you. It is too late at the barbecue to do it.

Dear Fellow Alumni:

The last issue of the Alumni Magazine carried a report of the fact that I expected to be in China during the Fall Semester on a deputation visit for the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions. I arrived in Shanghai on August 31 and am now engaged in a survey of missions, churches, schools, universities, hospitals, and other enterprises which the Presbyterian Church supports. Our report will carry recommendations as to policies, personnel, and budget as the program is rebuilt in this vast country. There are five of us, only two of whom are here as yet. Our return home will probably be late in December. Dr. Lloyd S. Ruland, a Secretary of the Foreign Board, and I came to China by airplane. I flew from Maryville to New York on August 21, with instructions to be ready to fly next day to London, India, and China, but plans were changed and August 23 I flew from New York to San Francisco. On August 25, we left on a U. S. Navy plane for Pearl Harbor, Guam, Okinawa, and Shanghai. Actual flying time over the Pacific was 43 hours, but in addition we spent a night at Honolulu and a night at Guam. Traveling under high priorities from the Department of State we had no difficulties. We are to visit the principal centers of China except those in Communist power and some in the far west, traveling chiefly by air.

At the College

This mission took me away from Maryville almost a week before college opened and as I write this I have had no word since we left San Francisco two days before students reported. There were still a number of faculty and staff adjustments to be made and the problem of housing students was a tough one. We turned away large numbers. I expect to hear that after students had found some rooms in town and town residents of the community had registered, our total would not be far under the pre-war figures, even though we had used some space in Carnegie for married veterans. Dean McClelland is serving as Administrative Chairman and Dean Hunter as Faculty Chairman during my absence. Judge S. O. Houston, Chairman of the Directors, Judge A. E. Mitchell, Chairman of the Committee on Finance, and Judge J. C. Crawford, Recorder and Acting Treasurer, also are carrying extra duties.

Faculty and Staff

We are glad to welcome back a number of our people who have been away and to introduce an unusually large group of new members of the faculty and staff. Their names appear elsewhere in this issue. We have made good progress in rebuilding.

New Majors

Not only are we re-establishing our major in Art, but are inaugurating new majors in School Music, Business Administration, and Physical Education. Alumni will be interested also in the fact that after four years' omission, a full schedule of intercollegiate athletics will be conducted.

New Curriculum

The faculty are now shaping up the details of the proposed new curriculum and we hope to have them ready for specific announcement before the year is over, although other readjustments and my present absence may slow down its completion somewhat.

Class Reunions at Commencement

I hope that travel and other conditions next May will make possible a renewal of alumni visits and of a regular schedule of alumni class reunions. The fifty-year class reunion is the only one which has been kept up through the War. The Alumni Office will be announcing the list of 1947 reunions. Alumni Day will be Tuesday, May 20.

Cordially yours,

Ralph Waldo Lloyd

The Alumni President's Message

Fellow Alumni:

HENRY J. BASSETT

Another year rolls by and again our annual Homecoming Day approaches. The date is November 2. The war is over. The boys are back. The college halls are crowded with students. Morale is high. Prospects are excellent. Let us gather in great numbers to join in happy recollections, and in enthusiastic expectations.

FRED A. GRIFFITTS

As you know, President Lloyd will not be here to greet us, for he is far away in China on a special mission for our Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions. Dean Hunter and Dean McClelland, who are in charge in his absence, and the Alumni members on the faculty will make us cordially welcome. Professor Griffiths and his group of helpers will serve as official hosts and hostesses. Carl Storey and his committee are in charge of the barbecue. "Nuff sed." The football game with Middle Tennessee State College (Murfreesboro) will be a fitting close for the day.

Of course we do not wish to confine ourselves to semi-annual bursts of enthusiasm on Homecoming Day and at Commencement. As loyal Alumni we will not forget to send in our annual dues ($2) to our Executive Secretary, Rev. James R. Smith, '35, and will keep him notified of our whereabouts. If we can give him any items of news regarding ourselves or other Maryville folks, it will enable him to fill those columns of Alumni news in the Alumni Magazine that we all enjoy so much.

WINIFRED L. PAINTER

The Wilson Fund is still open. Here is a chance to help our Alma Mater and at the same time to contribute to a memorial to Dr. Samuel T. Wilson, our loved Professor for many years, and then one of the greatest Presidents any college ever had.

The Living Endowment is a system in common use among colleges now, whereby annual contributions can easily provide the income that would be secured from large capital gifts. Maryville has such a system. Are you participating in it?

We are proud of our Alma Mater. Let us be ready and eager to spread her fame and extend her influence among our friends and associates wherever our lot has been cast.

Sincerely yours,

H. J. BASSETT, '04

FOUNDERS DAY

DR. LEBER

The fourteenth annual Founders Day Service will be held in Voorhees Chapel at 9:45 a. m. Saturday, November 2. The general theme will be "The Worldwide Mission of the Christian College." The Rev. Dr. Charles T. Leber, of New York, will be the speaker. Dr. Leber has been a Secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions since 1936 and in that capacity has visited missions in the Middle East, the Far East, and Africa. He is also a member of the General Council of the Presbyterian Church and of the executive committee of the Foreign Missions Conference of North America.

Judge Houston, Chairman of the Board of Directors, and Dean Hunter and Dean McClelland will also take part in the service. All alumni are cordially invited and urged to attend.

FIFTY-YEAR REUNION

There were three members of the Fifty-Year Class who attended the alumni dinner and the Commencement exercises in May. At graduation the Class of 1896 numbered seven, of whom four are still living. The three deceased members are James Allen Davis, James Moses Ewing, and Harvey Boyd McCall. All four living members planned to be present, but the development of the railroad strike prevented Rev. Frank Jonathan Milman of New Jersey from coming. The three who were present are Roger Sherman Boardman, Jonathan Houston Newman, and Samuel Boyd Parker.

Each of these three spoke briefly at the alumni dinner and fifty-year certificates were awarded to them at the Commencement exercises. A similar certificate was sent to Mr. Milman. Mrs. Newman and Mrs. Parker were also present.

The following citations and presentation were read at the Commencement exercises by President Lloyd of the College:

"Roger Sherman Boardman, who resides in Bloomfield, New Jersey, and has his business in New York City, graduated at Maryville College while his father was serving as the fourth President of the institution. After his graduation here he attended Harvard University two years and received a second degree there. For the next three years he taught in Texas and Oklahoma. But in 1902 he entered what proved to be his life work—the publishing business. For ten years he was with Ginn and Company, Boston, and DeVinne Press, New York. Since 1912 he has been with Charles Scribners Sons, New York publishers, in the general field of editorial supervision, except that following World War I he spent almost two years with the Red Cross in Paris. His writings include a book containing the biography of his ancestor, Roger Sherman, and also ten biographical sketches in the Dictionary of American Biography. We are sorry that Mrs. Boardman is unable to be here today.

"Jonathan Houston Newman of Johnson City, Tennessee, and Mrs. Houston are related to Maryville College in several ways. The one of which we are thinking today is his graduation in 1896. For eight years after graduation he taught in North Carolina and for three or four of those years was principal of the literary Department of the Asheville Farm School. Since that time he has been engaged in the general insurance business. For many years he has been known as a Bible student and teacher and is an Elder in the First Presbyterian Church in his city.

"Samuel Boyd Parker of Knoxville, and Mrs. Parker, like Mr. and Mrs. Newman, were Maryville College students. Mr. Parker taught for ten years, was a YMCA secretary for eleven years, a newspaper man in Knoxville three years, and for the past 26 years has taught mathematics in Knoxville High School. He is to retire at the end of the current year. I first saw him and heard him speak and sing at Maryville College when I was a student here and he was a Tennessee State YMCA student secretary. I can remember him still for he made a definite impression on me. Singing has been his principal avocation and he was a church choir director for 26 years.

"To you the Class of 1896 who are here, and to the one who is absent, I extend in behalf of your Alma Mater hearty greetings, sincere congratulations, and earnest good wishes in celebration of this anniversary. All of you are Christian men who serve in the Church of Christ and in the causes of Christ. In recognition of your contributions to your day and generation, I place in the hands of each of you a certificate which is a symbol of affection and honor. May God bless you."

FACULTY AND ALUMNUS TO IRAN

Mr. Commodore Fisher of the Class of 1916, who served his Alma Mater during the college year of 1945-1946 as Associate Professor of History, after twenty years of service as a missionary-educator in Iran, finally answered the urgent call to return to Iran to re-establish certain of the educational work there. He and Mrs. Fisher and daughter, Peggy, sailed in July to resume their residence and work on the foreign mission field.

SUMMER ON THE CAMPUS

Summer at the College was not the quiet restful time that some people imagine it was. Synod and Synodical, young people's conferences, and a music festival brought many people to the campus and kept the staff exceedingly busy.

The Synod, Synodical Society, and Westminster Fellowship Council of Mid-South met on the campus June 25-28. Over three hundred persons attended. Four young people's conferences were held. The Knoxville Presbytery (Presbyterian Church, U.S.) conferences for senior young people and for intermediates were held simultaneously from June 17 to 22, with 266 attending; the East Tennessee senior conference (Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.), June 10 to 17, with 125 attending; and the intermediate conference (Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.), July 1 to 8, with 138 attending.

From August 12 to 23 Mr. Guy Maier held a music festival and workshop on the campus. About 240 musicians attended, most of them teachers, from a wide area including Canada and States as far away as New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma, Indiana, and New York. Mr. Maier is a very fine piano teacher who holds seminars each summer in various parts of the country. This summer his seminars were at MacPhail College of Music, Minneapolis, Sherwood Music School, Chicago, Juilliard School of Music, New York, and Maryville College. Mr. Maier conducted classes in piano pedagogy and he and his staff gave private lessons to those desiring them. Each evening there was a concert in the Chapel.

On May 31, the College gave a luncheon in honor of Mrs. Julius Young Talmadge, of Georgia, President General of the D.A.R., Mrs. C. Edward Murray, of New Jersey, Vice-President General, and Mrs. VanCourt Carwithen, of Pennsylvania, National Chairman of Approved Schools. The local D.A.R. chapter was invited to be co-hostess with the College.

NEW COLLEGE DIRECTORS

The following four new Directors of Maryville College were elected in June by the Presbyterian Synod of Mid-South to fill vacancies on the Board.

Rev. Harrison Ray Anderson, D.D., LL.D., Litt.D., Pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, Chicago, Illinois, one of the great churches of America. Dr. Anderson has led the February Meetings on two occasions, in 1939 and 1944.

Rev. Chester Fred Leonard, B.A. (Maryville, '17), B.D., whose post office is Sneedville, Tennessee, not far from the northeast corner of the State, and whose work is at Vardy, some miles away, where he and Mrs. Leonard (Josephine Wicks of the Class of 1920) for many years have rendered an outstanding church, school, and community service under the Presbyterian Board of National Missions.

Mr. Hugh Rankin Crawford, B.A. (Maryville, '03), well known hardware merchant and churchman of Maryville.

Mr. James L. Getaz, B.S., formerly of Maryville,

HONORARY DEGREES

H. W. REHERD

At the 1946 Commencement two honorary degrees were awarded. The degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred upon the Rev. Herbert Ware Reherd, who was the Commencement speaker. Dr. Reherd was President of Westminster College, Salt Lake City, from 1913 to 1939 and is now President Emeritus and Chairman of the Board of Trustees. Before going to the College he was a pastor in Detroit and Waterloo, Iowa. He is regarded as one of the most constructive leaders in the field of Christian education.

The degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon the Rev. Sam H. Franklin, Jr., of the Class of 1924, now Acting Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions in the Chicago office. His home was in Maryville and his father and mother still live across the street from the campus. After graduation from college he attended McCormick Theological Seminary, receiving the Bachelor of Divinity degree there in 1928. Later he received the Master of Sacred Theology degree from Union Theological Seminary, New York, and spent one year at the University of Edinburgh. For five years he was a missionary to Japan, where among his friends was the famous Japanese Christian Kagawa. Then he was associated with Dr. Sherwood Eddy in a number of his pilgrimages to Europe, and after that became manager of the Delta Co-operative Farms in Mississippi, in whose establishment Dr. Eddy was a leader. During the war Dr. Franklin was a Navy chaplain in the Pacific. After his present service is over he hopes to return to Japan as a missionary. Mrs. Franklin, (Dorothy Winters), graduated at Maryville College in 1925.

SAM FRANKLIN

now of New York City, where he is connected with one of the large textile firms and is a leader in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church.

MRS. SNYDER RESIGNS MISS MASSEY APPOINTED

Mrs. Grace Pope Snyder, Supervisor of Women's Residence and Head of Pearsons Hall, resigned on September 16 to accept a position as counselor in the guidance program of the schools at Berryville, Arkansas. Last spring Mrs. Snyder completed ten years of service at the College and expressed then the desire to enter work which would allow her to spend a greater portion of time in counseling without the responsibility of residence supervision. She expected to complete the first semester here but at the request of the Berryville superintendent asked for a release in September and it was granted by the College.

In her years at the College Mrs. Snyder has rendered a noteworthy service in residence supervision and in furthering the cooperation of students and faculty in administering the social life of the campus. Her efforts in this direction have paved the way for further progress in the years ahead.

Mrs. Emma Lee Worley, formerly Head of McLain Memorial Hall, succeeded Mrs. Snyder as Head of Pearsons Hall, and is serving as Supervisor of Women's Residence for the remainder of the fall semester. Mrs. Esther C. Brunson, of Pine City, New York, was appointed Head of McLain Memorial Hall. She is assisted by Mrs. J. E. Edmondson, of Lynnville, Tennessee.

In January Miss E. Frances Massey, of Oxford, Alabama, a graduate of Maryville College in the Class of 1934, will join the college staff for duties corresponding to those of a dean of women. She will not serve as head of a dormitory but will maintain an administrative office on the campus.

Miss Massey was an honor student throughout her four years at Maryville. She was active in campus life, particularly in dramatics. Since her graduation she has taught biology at the Anniston, Alabama, High School. Thus she brings to her new duties at Maryville an intimate knowledge of the College and its activities supplemented by a successful teaching experience.

THE ARTISTS SERIES

The Artists Series again will present three concerts of unusual attraction and high quality. The first concert has been set for Friday night, November 1, as a part of the Homecoming weekend and tickets will be available to alumni at a special rate. If purchased ahead of time through the Alumni Office the price will be $1.20 (tax included); at the door tickets will cost $1.80. Address all requests to the Alumni Office, Maryville College.

Leonard Pennario, brilliant young American pianist, will give the November 1st concert. Since he was twelve, Mr. Pennario has been a pupil of Mr. Guy Maier and he played twice this summer in Voorhees Chapel at the Guy Maier Music Festival. Those who heard him then were deeply impressed by his playing and are looking forward eagerly to his concert in November. He was in the Army and gave concerts throughout the CBI theater.

The second concert, on January 25, will be "A Night in Old Vienna"—the finest music of Vienna sung by five outstanding young artists. Mona Bradford, contralto, and John Gurney, basso, are known to Maryville audiences through previous concerts. The other three singers are Laura Castellano, soprano, Richard Gordon, tenor, and Eduardo Rael, baritone. Giuseppe Bamboschek is the musical director. Their program will include some of the greatest writings of Haydn, Mozart, Schubert, and Brahms, as well as the lilting airs, waltzes, and polkas of old Vienna.

On February 24 Grisha Goluboff, young American violinist, will close the Series. As a child prodigy, Mr. Goluboff toured the United States and Canada, Europe, and Australia. Then he retired for six years for study and rest. Last fall he returned to the concert stage and won new acclaim as a mature musician and gifted artist.

Season tickets may be purchased for $3.60 (tax included) from the Alumni Office or from Professor George D. Howell.

FALL ENROLMENT

The Fall Semester opened with the registration of freshmen and new students on August 27. In the busy days that followed 832 students were enrolled, grouped as follows:

	Men	Women	Total
Freshmen	281	129	410
Sophomores	66	129	195
Juniors	42	80	122
Seniors	44	61	105
Total	433	399	832

Of this number, 415 are new students (380 first-semester freshmen, 35 transfers) and 417 are old students. Of the old students, 69 have been absent for a semester or more, most of them veterans. The total enrolment of veterans is 273, including five women.

Applications from old and new students for this semester totaled 1189, 573 from men and 616 from women. Many more would have applied but were discouraged by the lack of dormitory rooms. There is a long waiting list for the second semester opening on January 15, and a considerable number of applications have already been received for the fall semester of 1947.

DEATHS

John Samuel Eakin, '87, died May 9, 1946, in Knoxville. At the time of his death he was the senior member of the Board of Directors, having served 54 years. In the history of Maryville College, only one director has served longer: Rev. Calvin A. Duncan was on the Board for 58 years. Dr. Eakin attended Lane Theological Seminary after graduation from Maryville, and received the honorary D.D. degree from Maryville in 1918. He was a member of the famous Maryville College General Assembly Quartet composed of Eakin, Creswell, Goff, and Newman. He retired from the Fourth Presbyterian Church, Knoxville, in 1937, after a Pastorate of twenty years.

Mrs. Guy L. Barber (Nellie Maude McMurry, '11), died at her home in Knoxville, April 19, where she had reared her family. Her ties with Maryville College have continued since her graduation; two daughters, Mrs. Samuel Blizzard, (Harriet L. Barber, '39), and Mrs. Arthur Bushing '42, (Dorothy Louise Barber, '42), are graduates and Mary Ruth Barber is a senior this year at Maryville.

Rev. A. J. Harmon, '89, died at Georgetown, Ohio, April 9. His son, Louis E. Harmon, graduated from the Maryville Prep School in 1918.

Obie Jenkins, '39, was reported missing, May 11, 1945. He has now been declared dead.

Charles M. Marston, '93, died September 14, at the age of seventy-seven. He was born in Halford, Shropshire, England, and came with his parents to this country when he was two years old. The Rev. Mr. Marston got his seminary training at Lane Theological Seminary after graduation from Maryville. He married Mary Katherine Caldwell, '93, in 1903. He taught in the public schools in East Tennessee and in Maryville College before entering the ministry.

LIFE MEMBERSHIPS IN THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Several of you have written the Alumni Office for information on life memberships. Since others of you have doubtless had similar questions in your minds about it, it seems wise to give the information in the Magazine where all can have it.

We have made a survey of what the associations in many of the colleges and universities are doing. This article is something of a summary of what this survey revealed plus the attitude taken by the Executive Committee in session on September 16th at the College.

Those institutions that put in a form of life membership have discontinued it. They report that the life membership became impractical especially for the three following reasons: (1) it required accounting that was too costly since reserve funds had to be set up from which to draw from year to year to prevent exhausting the capital income before there was any source of replacement; (2) it was based upon the earning power of such a reserve fund invested at interest—the investment possibilities have been so greatly curtailed and the income from investment so small that this practice has had to be eliminated; (3) it rather unexpectedly resulted in alienating the life members from the institution, for when the dues were paid for life the institution was dismissed from the mind and a gradual and subtle estrangement set in.

With this material before them the Executive Committee voted to pass over the matter of life memberships until a further study could be made. The feeling was that it was not a wise procedure under existing circumstance. Especially did they feel this to be true under our circumstance, for if the large universities with the staffs that they have find the labor too much, then we who are extremely limited in office and clerical help had better be careful of it.

But we should not leave the picture without taking a look at what these institutions are doing. Many of them, probably most of them, have discontinued alumni dues altogether. Instead of alumni dues they have substituted the alumni living endowment fund; some of them call it simply the alumni fund. The general principle is the same with them all. They ask their alumni to give each year (and this applies to the big state universities as well as the smaller colleges) to this alumni fund; the minimum so far as we have been able to establish it is $10.00.

Some associations are run on their own income. Many have to have supplementary income from their institutions. The institutions charge such supplementary funds to public relations and promotion. In the state universities the association is either self supporting or the support comes from legislative appropriations. Maryville, like many other similar colleges, has no state appropriation to call upon. We have had $2.00 alumni dues as a purely voluntary participation. Out of 3000 graduates less than seven hundred pay dues. As we close the year's books it looks now as if our membership will not do as well this year as last. The Magazine goes to every one regardless of whether dues are paid or not. The cost of that Magazine has steadily risen; it has been expanded some also.

Our living endowment fund has done very well. We are looking forward to the day when we can have enough help to make a complete and accurate report of all who are participating in that fund. It is open to the whole Association, and a larger participation of the membership would be encouraging.

We should like to hear from you. Do you feel that to do away with all alumni dues and to substitute an alumni fund to which annual payments of no stipulated amount can be made would increase our income? If we did this, should we continue the living endowment fund for gifts to the College, or should gifts to the College come from the excess alumni fund? Let us have your thought on this matter.
